Description

Good afternoon, My name is Taylor Kapphan and I will be a sophomore this year at James Irwin Charter High School. I have been involved in 4-H since I was 8 years old. I have shown swine, horse, goats, shooting sports, guinea pig, poultry, cat, and robotics. This is my first year doing market beef and it has been a very fun year. Titan, my steer, was very wild when we purchased him back in November. He loved to kick. But now he is a big love bug. He will be your best friend if you give him treats. Teaching him to walk on a lead has been very frustrating but he has come a long way. Titan is a black Angus cross. I will also be selling my Grand Champion and Reserve Champion market fryer chicken trios and a market goat. Please think of me when considering your purchase. Thank you for your support.
