Description

Good Afternoon, My name is Taylor Kapphan and I am selling my Grand Champion Market Chicken Trio today. I will be a sophomore at James Irwin Charter High School this year. I have been in 4-H since I was 8 years old and have showed market beef, market swine, market goat, poultry, guinea pig, horse, cat, shooting sports, and robotics. My favorite species to show is goat but I really enjoyed showing market beef this year. I really was not expecting to get Grand Champion Market Chicken trio. I was very shocked. With COVID, we had to order chickens from a different hatchery and they were late hatching so we were unsure if they would make weight. Then we lost 11 chickens. We usually order enough for my sister and I to raise together then we weigh and group them together the night before fair. Since we received the chickens late, we did not have any chickens heavy enough to make any broiler pairs. My sister and I do not 'claim' the trios, its just how they are put in the cages when we get there. Please consider purchasing my Grand Champion Market Chicken Trio when thinking about making your purchase. Thank you for your support.
