Description

This is my wether, Vader. He likes to push hard in a brace. I worked with him a lot, but he didn't like the judge touching him, so he was pretty jumpy at the show. At least I have four years of experience, so I was able to still show him well!

My name is Mesa. I am always sad to see my lambs go, but I look forward to breeding, which is right around the corner, and babies in January.
