Description

This pig is a crossbred gilt. She is mostly black with some white throughout the body, she has a white face with a black spot on her forehead. Her name is Penelope pig. I have had this pig in my possession since March 7th 2020. I bought her from Toredos Farms, a local farmer in Pueblo, Colorado. Some of the successes that I had was successfully raising two pigs having never raised pigs before, I made weight, I didn't put too much weight on her for her body type, and she got reserve grand in her weight class. This year I learned that raising a market animal is not easy especially pigs. Thankfully my pigs stayed healthy while in my possession.
