Description

My name is Alyson Edwards, and I am a senior at Livingston high school. I am auctioning my 2020 HLSR market barrow. This would have been my sixth year to exhibit livestock at Houston, but my first year with a barrow. I was fortunate this year to be able to raise both sheep and pigs. While it was very time consuming, and a lot of work, I would not trade my experience showing for anything in the world. Stock show life has molded me in to the person I am today. It has given me confidence, work ethic, a strong sense of responsibility, and most importantly, it's given me memories I'll cherish for a lifetime. My mom and I were heartbroken when we heard the news of cancellation. We were in Houston for the sheep show, and thankfully I was able to show my lamb. However, it crushed me when I realized I wouldn't get to show my "little Duroc" as we often referred to him, as he was the smallest of my pigs. Everyone thinks theirs is a winner, but I'm certain he was. Now, we will never know. The money I was expecting to earn from HLSR would have gone towards my college education. I plan to attend Tarleton in the fall, and my goal is to become a veterinarian. Any contribution you can make towards my barrow is greatly appreciated. God bless!
