Description

Elijah Moreno is 14 years old and an incoming Freshman at Middletown High School. This is Elijah's first year being involved in FFA and as a Greenhand he is excited to see how his market hog "Prince" does in the show ring. When he's not busy working with "Prince" and learning the ropes at the school farm, Elijah spends his time working on his soccer skills which he hopes to put to good use this year as a member of the Middletown High School Varsity Boys Soccer team. Elijah is a naturally gifted and charismatic student, an athlete, and talented writer with hopes of one day becoming a lawyer focusing on water rights. Elijah plans to use the money he earns from the sale of his market hog this year towards the purchase of a market steer for next year's project and so forth until graduation.
