Description

I'm William Boden and I have raised animals for three years. This is my second year of raising pigs, and this photo is of Carol Baskin this year's pig. Carol is very sweet, and she is always happy to see me arrive at the barn. She was a good project and I have enjoyed spending time with her. When I get down next to her, she wants her belly rubbed so she always lays right down. I will keep working hard and show next year too, because there's still more to learn.
