Description

O.G. The Black Angus and I have been together for the past year. He was my scramble steer. I named him O.G. which stands for Olton to Greenwood because together we made one of the biggest moves of our lives. I left behind everything I knew for the last 15 years and moved to a bigger school, city, and competition. O.G. loves to give kisses and has been my constant companion. I am deeply disappointed that we didn't get to return to the Scramble Show. I hope to make enough money to buy another project so I can start preparing for next year.
