Description

Good afternoon, my name is Adrian Alaniz I'm going to be freshman as PSJA high this year, and have been showing with them for two years now. This is my second time showing market chickens at RGVLS, I really enjoy raising and showing them since there is so much to learn about keeping them healthy. During the time of raising them I spend everyday making sure their feed, water and bedding is always clean and make sure the temperature in their pen is always on schedule. My favorite part of raising them is when it comes time to choosing the broiler pen for show, we usually have around 20 birds left and my ag teacher Mr. Garza, my brother and I get together to choose them. We get so excited when a huge bird comes along it really makes me feel good about all the hard work we put into them, and gets me counting the hours till show from the excitement.

I would really appreciate your bid on my Reserve Champion Chickens, thank you so much. I plan on using the money to fund this year's projects and expand the show chicken pen. Thank you so much for support.
