Description

Hi, I'm Lexi King and I'm a sophomore at Petrolia High School. I have been showing swine since the sixth grade! Showing swine is something that I take a lot of pride in, it has been a hobby of mine for many years. I am super excited about the 2021 Clay County Junior Livestock Show. I plan to reinvest the money that I earn from the CCJLA into my swine project for next year. This year I will exhibit pigs, both are crossbreds, their names are Hillbilly and Jinx. Jinx is probably my favorite of the two, however I am ready to get them both in the show ring.

Thank you for your support!
