Description

I chose to draw a cowboy hat and boots, because I feel it represents ranch life. A good cowboy hat and boots is a must for the western at heart. The hat, was designed to protect working cattlemen as they worked all day long under the hot sun. Nowadays, cowboy hats are worn for all sorts of purposes, from special occasions to a hard days work. The cowboy boots are worn for many reasons. They protect the feet from water, extreme cold, mud, and hazards that can hurt your feet. They also provide ankle support for tough activities that most ranchers engage in, and protect ranchers from a long day ride.
