Description

My name is Crystal Chacon Lara and I'm raising and selling meat chickens this is my first year doing this. I also had a side project where I would breed guinea pigs and then sell the litter of babies but since I'm going to college in 2022 I had to stop doing that project. I love animals and doing farm things. I go to Stagg High School and I don't play sports at all and I'm also in Public Safety Academy and have had honor and AP classes and have straight A's in school. I do plan on going to a four year university which I plan on going to Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo.
