Description

Jimmy Buffet is a short yet beefy steer, and weighs around 1250. He has a lot of energy and loves to run around and roll around on the ground. At the same time, he loves to take his afternoon naps. Ever since I got him in early July, he has been out to get my dad. yet he loves me even though I was the one who cornered him by introducing a halter. Our relationship has gotten better and stronger over the past year and he is very much a ladies man.

Me and Jimmy have had a very up and down, love-hate relationship. At first we did not like each other at all, but over the months we have gotten closer and now we love each other. The Jimmy has gotten to the point he doesn't even like when someone else feeds him when I am not home. He also has an amazing personality although when we are going for walks he gets distracted VERY easily and has taught me a lot when it comes to breaking and showing. At his first Jackpot Show he had a blast, he was the most social steer ever and wanted to talk to everyone. He also got very happy when we brought home a heifer and thinks she is his girlfriend (they are always all over each other and are the best of friends).
