Description

My name is Cassidy Morton and this is my second year raising a market steer. Over the past three years, I have raised market hogs and market steers. I have worked hard to get him to where he is. He used to be very timid and skittish but now after exposing him to people he has gotten a lot better and has become more social. I will use this money to pay for my next project, either a pig or another market steer. It will also go to new supplies and paying back the expenses used this year.

Quantity: 1082
