Description

Everybody loves bacon! Stock up on some high-quality pork. My name is Maverick Lahman, and I am so glad to offer my swine for auction this year. As a freshman in Lodi FFA, this is my very first animal project. I am grateful for the big learning experience. I learned about selecting the prime animal to produce the most high quality meat. I have also learned about adjusting his feed to keep him growing at the appropriate rate. I have worked hard to care for my animal so that he not only produces great meat but that he has a quality life. I am excited to participate in showmanship for the first time as well this year. Please consider bidding on my swine.

Quantity: 252
