Description

Feel like a ham sandwich? Please bid on my market swine. She won 3rd in her very competitive class. My name is Vance Lahman, and this is my very first year raising an animal project. I am 12 years old, and I am in Alpine Victor 4-H. I have been raising my pig since February. I chose her from the litter because she had a straight back, a good sized hindquarters, walked nicely and looked healthy. I have been feeding her high-quality food, and she has been steadily gaining with no health issues. I am hoping to keep her right at the top of the weight allowed. She is also a very well behaved pig, and she enjoys her daily walks. I have worked hard to raise a solid animal that will provide excellent meat. Thank you for considering bidding on my animal.
