Description

My name is Alyssa Chaves and I am a 17 years old Senior at Tokay High School in Lodi. I have been raising market goats with Tokay Colony 4-H for 8 years. Throughout the years, I have learned a lot about goat health, nutrition, and showing, which has given me the opportunity to be a junior leader. I am grateful to have the opportunity to participate in the AgFest this year, especially since it is in person. I plan to use the earnings from my current project to support next year's project, and the remainder will go towards college tuition.
