Description

Hi, my name is Orion Flores

I am a sophomore and FFA member at Merrill F. West High School. This past year, I've become extremely interested in what FFA has to offer students, as well as the numerous activities included. I've competed in a variety of competitions, including extemporaneous and cooperative marketing, and I'm a part of the West High Horse Judging team. As a member of the FFA, I am expected to complete an SAE project (supervised agriculture experience). I've decided to take on the task of raising a market lamb for the San Joaquin County Fair this year. This is my first year raising a market lamb and his name is Toby. I have put a lot of time and effort into raising Toby. I got him when he was 3 months old and since then I have fed him twice a day, I make sure he has fresh water at all times, I also take him for an hour-long walk every day to help him develop a healthy muscular quality and quantity. I've learned a lot about how to raise a lamb and have a lot of new skills. Some of the skills I learned while raising a lamb are time management, accountability and self-motivation. Please consider purchasing my lamb; if you do not wish to buy him but still want to support, you may do so through Add-ons or a direct donation. If you need to contact me my email is Captainoreo88@gmail.com.
