Description

Hi my name is Melvin! I am an 89 lb Boer goat and while I may be big, I am very much a scaredy cat, especially when it comes to my owner, Emma Bracco. Now, Emma isn't a scary person or anything, but she knows how to train a goat. I remember all those days of walking and showing when all I wanted to do was a take a nap. I guess it all turned out well in the end. I mean look at me! What has she not done right? I am a great market goat. So make sure to bid for me!
