Description

My name is Caleb. This is my second year in swine, but it will be my first time showing in the live fair. I am excited to get to participate this year and I think I have a great animal this year. My extra experience helped out this year. I was lucky to have a healthy animal all year. He was a great eater, so I had to measure his food from the beginning to keep him on track. Ultimately, I think my project came out great.
