Description

My name is Addison Boysen and this is my first year raising a market lamb for 4-H. My dad convinced me to raise a lamb for fair. I am really glad he did! I was really thinking about showing a steer, but I wanted to do something different than what my brother and sister have done. My lambs' name is Bruce and he weighs about 151 pounds.

I got Bruce from a family that raises lambs in the Valley Springs area. I have learned a lot about the responsibility and commitment when it comes to having to feed Bruce every day, giving him baths and also practicing how to show him. I have learned a lot from 4-H about determination and this has helped me with raising Bruce.

This year at Agfest I place 3rd in market in my class and I did pretty good in showmanship. Agfest was so much fun and I cannot wait to do a lamb again next year! Please bid on Bruce!
