Description

My name is Daniel Clary and I am 13 years old and an eighth grader at St. Peter Lutheran School in Lodi. I'm in my fourth year at Linden-Peters 4-H club. I'm engaged in my club through other projects including speech, cooking, leadership and welding as well as serving as Sergeant-at-Arms and Treasurer. I also enjoy giving back to my community by leading the restoration of our local post office bench and serving on the Junior AgFest Board. My hog's name is Chop and is a black crossbred barrow. It has been a pleasure to train him in showmanship with his calm demeanor. I take excellent care of my hog and dedicate time to improve the quality of my animal through a high quality grain diet based on his weight and confirmation, daily exercising and conditioning. I have raised a fair hog for the past 3 years and am excited at the possibility of you supporting me this year. I was excited that my care resulted in a 2nd place in my market class and a 7th place in my showmanship class of 70 kids my age! Your support helps me to invest in next year's project and save money for a vehicle. The pandemic has made it a challenge to have events such as the livestock sale but I am looking forward to being there in person and hope that you can join me there.
