Description

Hi my name is Karlee Bunker and this is my 3rd year raising Boer goats. My favorite thing has been learning all about these animals. I have had a few tough moments but I love to raise goats. Goats are strange because they will bite, kick, headbutt, and hurt you, but they will also be super protective, and they can recognize their owners. Sometimes they remind me of dogs! The goats will test you and sometimes its really hard (especially when they are big) but they are incredibly smart and funny. Please consider purchasing my goat, S'more. He is very muscular and he was a good, well behaved, goat.
