Description

Hello, my name is Alejandro Melendez. This year, I have raised a beautiful looking swine. It's my third year raising a swine and I believe it has been my best year yet. I named my swine Chapo, and he has been an absolute great pig to raise. I first got Chapo in February and right away I knew he was a good pig. With the help of my parents and friends, we fixed up the pen in which I raised Chapo in. I made sure to always have food and fresh water for him. He also got treats during our walks to motivate him for this good work. The food I feed Chapo was of great quality and I always made sure he was well taken care of. Being in 4-H has proven to be a great experience and I have learned so much. I hope you consider the purchase of this great swine.
