Description

This year is my second year involved in Escalon FFA, after being a part of Escalon 4-H for four years. They both have been great experiences for me and have taught me that hard work and dedication result in a goat that I am proud to present at Agfest. Although I have shown different animals throughout the years including turkeys, market sheep, and breeding does, this year I decided to raise a market goat like I did last year. This year was my second year with a market goat and I learned many different things. As I continue to grow my knowledge about market goat feeding, showing, and care-taking, I am excited to see where I will go in the future. I believe that with all of the work I have put in, the results have paid off with my goat, "Captain Lee", who currently weighs in at 100 pounds.
