Description

Hello, my name is Lizbeth Perez Luna I am an incoming freshman at Sacramento state university I have been raising market goats for two years. Rocky Is fed twice a day A mixture of newco lamb feed and Glenn Martin goat pellets With various other supplements. This year Rocky was unable to gain weight for a while but luckily we were able to get him back on track. Any funds I may make off of Rocky this year will go towards what I need for college and transitioning from living at home to living on campus. To say the least this year has not been easy with the pandemic, graduating high school, being a chapter officer and raising an animal. Rockys scrapie tag number is 21024
