Description

Hello Ag Fest people! My name is Alyson Kroll, a Freshman from Venture Academy who is very thrilled to interest you in my fair project, which in my case are turkeys! I have learned a lot from working with turkeys this year, from setting up a schedule to get them fed and watered to cleaning up their pen. I have also learned that turkeys are very loud and get a bit angry when you don't feed them their cracked corn in the mornings. Its been a great experience so far working with these birds this year and I hope that the turkey I can present will catch your eye!
