Description

This is my fourth year in 4h and second year raising market chickens. This is my Reserve Grand Champion broiler trio. I also raise goats and turkeys. Raising market chickens is very difficult. I started with 20 and had to separate them as they got older to try and keep them in different weight classes. Once I was a month out I had to weigh them weekly and then daily the last week before fair. It would give me an idea of how much to feed them. That week before fair was hard because it was very hot. I did my best to keep the chickens cool so they wouldn't lose weight. I really enjoy raising the chickens and can't wait to use what I learned this year next year and maybe get Grand Champion.

Thank you for looking at my chicken trio.
