Description

Hello! My name is Violet McDonough, and this is my second year in 4H. I'm doing 4H because I was interested in the process of raising a pig. This whole experience has been new to me and to my family.

My pig's name is Lilac. I bought her from a small family farm. One of my goals was to spend time every day training her to walk with me. Lilac is a smart pig and was fun to train. Now we can walk anywhere we want, even without fences! Lilac performed well for me at Fair and placed 3rd in her Market weight class. The judge told me that it was obvious that I had spent a lot of time working with my pig. She also told me that she was one of the pigs with the best skin and hair.

I didn't get to experience an auction last year due to the COVID pandemic. I am looking forward to learning about this whole auction process.

You can support me by attending the auction in-person, viewing online or by making a donation to my project. I am grateful for all of your support. Thank you!
