Description

Hogs, Pigs, Oinkers. They all come by any name!

My XBred Market Barrow, Bacon enjoyed a great Spring and Summer at my 4h project corner at my grandparents place. He lived the best life in a portable hog sled, with continuous sprinklers and a pool of water to keep cool in!

I spend some of my time reading to my 3 market hogs. I thought that maybe being around them and reading to them would slow them down and start to like me!

It seemed to help. We had a fun summer in the shade and water!

Bacon is a XBred Barrow, I think he has a nice smooth walk. His front shoulders are broad and his rump is nice and round. He has thickness all over that makes him a good pick for some fresh bacon!!!
