Description

Thank you for checking out my lamb this year! My lamb Blue (like the cheese) is my fourth, final, and favorite lamb. Blue has been a pleasure to work with and show, placing 2nd twice, third and fourth and the shows we were able to go to this year. Although he has his days, as any dorper does, I can always count on him to run up to greet me whenever I see him. He stays by my side wherever we go, and loves to press up against me for chest scratches. His unique coat makes him the most recognizable lambs not only in the barn, but every show we go to as well. And along with his coat, his lovable personality draws people to greet him. I'm so happy to have been able to show Blue for my final year in highschool, everything I've learned in my previous years was all implemented into this project. I plan to use the money from this auction for college. My dream college is A&M Corpus Christi, but I will probably go to community college for the first few years to help with costs. Thank you once again for taking a look at my project, and have a great rest of your day!
