Description

For my senior year and my last lamb I'll have for my high school years, I tend to lead the profit I have earned into my education as in going to college. My lamb is more dedicated and one of the strongest I ever had. He may be scared and awkward most times, but once he's comfortable he's the sweetest and most of the time easy to work with. I'm glad I'm ending the year with a lamb that is ready to be well-rounded, dedicated, and is an animal I have a more connection with than I did with my other projects.
