Description

Hello, My name is Averly Huerta. I am raising a Duroc pig as part of my FFA project for James Madison High school. His name is Ozwald (Ozzy). This is my first year raising a pig, it is a lot of work but very fulfilling. I feed and walk him everyday and I am tasked with teaching him how to SHOW. Keeping his head up and being able to walk him around the arena showing all sides. Durocs are red in color and have floppy ears, the are super smart, and Ozzy reminds me of a big puppy. He loves to have his belly rubbed, bathes, and big hugs. Ozwald is a market swine and my goal is to sell him at the San Antonio Livestock Rodeo. Thank you for all your support.
