Description

When I received these show roasters in February, I knew it was time to get to work. I then immediately got to work making sure they had fresh waters, food filled up to the rim, and made sure they were cool/warm to meet their needs. I have been showing chickens for 5 years and it has taught me that when you put in the hard work, it pays off. Well not all the time, but some of it. I have only made the sale 2 out of the 5 years I have shown though. Reserve Grand 2 years ago, and third place this past year. I am quite sad that this next year will be my last, but I have been enjoying it!
