Animal Weight (in Pounds) 134

Description

My animal, Wether boy, has been a hard head for this entire year. Even after all that he is still a high quality animal that would be a great eat. He weighs 124 pounds and we hope for him to be about 130 for fair. He has been one of the most interesting animals I have ever raised and probably the most challenging. I have exhibited him in the northwest going to many shows. I hope that you consider buying an animal and supporting the ever growing 4h community.
