Description

Hi, my name is Amanda Carmona! This year I am a graduating senior hoping to go Texas A&M for college. This is my 4th year raising rabbits, and first raising a lamb. Through thick and thin with these animals I have loved my experiences with them, from taking my rabbits home because our faucet broke in the barn during the freeze to my lamb being a master escape artist and going through multiple carabiners to keep him in his pen. These years have been amazing and have provided me with many memories that I will have forever especially this year, being that it was not only my last year in high school but the first year I went and showed in a lamb show and won the showmanship for rabbits and was allowed the opportunity to show all the species in one go (though I'm probably the worst swine showman you've ever seen). Being with these animals day in and day out has inspired me to be a livestock or equine veterinarian. I love the animals I work with so much that I couldn't see myself doing anything else in the future, therefore anything that I earn from this premium auction will go towards my further education and my DVM. I know that being a rabbit raiser seems easy but we face much adversity and any support your willing to give be greatly appriciated and will go towards even more hard work!
