Description

Hi my name is Ariella Dunzz, I am a 14yr.old Freshmen at James Madison High School, San Antonio,TX. I am apart of the FFA program. My projects are a market, Barrow Hampshire and New Zealand rabbits. This year is my first year raising a barrow and second year raising rabbits. Tuxs, is my barrows name his name was chosen due to his appearance of a tuxedo! My daily routine consist of feeding, bathing, grooming and whip training. I spent a total 4-5 hours a day with my hog and rabbits this has been a great bonding experience and learning to trust each other to show well in the arena. Daily meals are twice a day with a high quality feeds, supplement and oats. He is building muscle and characteristics daily. We have attended a jackpot shows: Colton Tatsch Memorial 8th place, Cougar Classic 6th place, and the most recent one being North East AG Fair 1st place in class pure breed and Reserve Champion breed. I love working with my livestock show animals. I will be competing in the San Antonio Livestock Show. My goal for the auction is to raise money to continue learning and raising livestock show swine animals and more.
