Description

Hello, I'm Robert Mayo. I am 15 years old and belong to the Plainsman 4h club. I am a sophomore attending Ellicott High School. 4h is a program for anyone ages 5 to 18 to participate. 4h'ers have a wide variety of projects they could be doing from animals, to baking and much more. This year I am undertaking rabbits, as well as market goats, and learning how bothersome goats are.

First, I'll talk about my goats. I have two boer goats, Tony and Abraham. They are quite bothersome when I have to train them, due to them not wanting to leave each other's side. I've taken two goat classes learning how to show goats, clip goats, and fit goats. I have taken each of them to a showmanship class to learn how to show a goat, and they both through a considerable fit once they are separated, even for training around the yard. I try to train them every other day, alternating each day which one I'm training.

Next, I will talk about my rabbits. I have three show rabbits. Right now I am showing Californian Rabbits which are white rabbits with black ears, noses, paws, and tails, but I recently got some Red New Zealand. I've been to several rabbit shows practicing getting my rabbits ready for the fair show.
