Description

Catfish is the name of my market lamb, named for his cheek whiskers when he was a little lamb born on my family's farm. He is the first lamb from our '21 EPCF Reserve Champion Ewe, a natty girl named Nebula. He is one of the good lambs thrown by our '19 EPCF Reserve Champion Ram, a natty ram named Trucker. Like Trucker and Nebula, Catfish loves head and back rubs.

His personality stood out during training as mischievous and curious with times of rowdiness. It made training with him unpredictable and fun. This is my first year doing market lamb without my older brother so it has been a challenge for me, but my lamb has helped make it memorable.

Each year I learn more skills and feel proud of my efforts. I am glad for my 4-H project experience and hope you will consider bidding on my lamb.
