Description

This year I had the opportunity to get a pig off scholarship. I was so grateful for this opportunity due to my family not having the funds to peruse this goal of mine for my senior year of highschool. My pig has taught me many lessons throught these past few months. He has taught me patience, compassion, and responsibility. I'm beyond thankful to have learned these life lessons with him before I begin college next year. I will forever be filled with gratitude for this once in a lifetime experience.
