Description

Hi my name is Reese Royce and I am a senior at East Central High School. This year was my first year showing rabbits, prior to this year I have shown cattle for the past five years but due to a lack of financial stability in my family because of medical conditions I had to show a smaller project. This year showing rabbits has brought new opportunities for myself. I have learned many new skills in my leadership and responsibility rolls. I have also had the honor as serving as a Bexar County Junior Livestock Show Ambassador. Making the sale this year is a true blessing. The money that I receive will be used directly to my college funds, as I will be attending Texas Tech this next fall and majoring in agribusiness.
