Description

When you're going camping, tailgating, vacation, taking a road trip, or hunting, expanded cargo capacity is almost a necessity. No matter how large your vehicle is, there's a good chance you can't fit everything you need when you're traveling, which means you leave something's behind. That's when this steel cargo carrier is extremely handy, expanding your cargo capacity AND seating without impacting the actual interior space of your vehicle. Use it as a standard cargo carrier to get to your destination, and then convert it to its bench seating easily!
