Description

Introducing Rexx, an outstanding market swine, raised for excellence. With careful attention, Rexx portrays top-tier livestock standards- showcasing a muscular build, good eating habits, and equal fat to muscle ratio. Perfect for a buyer, seeking good meat in their freezer. Rexx is a great investment, and a champion in the making. Take the opportunity to purchase him and have premium meat for all your family to eat.

I am a junior in highschool, and this is my second year in FFA. This experience is something I cannot believe I got to be apart of. The friendships I have made and responsibilities I have learned are indescribable. Your investment in my market swine, would allow stay in FFA for one last year, and take my passions with animals with me into a new chapter.
