Description

Hello my name is Liam and this is my first year in Nederland's Jr FFA. This year I have chosen to show rabbits. I love science and showing animals helps me incorporate my love of science in real life. The reason I chose to show rabbits is because I think they are cool and rabbits have some of the best hearing in the animal kingdom. Rabbits eat a lot more than I expected and they are fluffy and cute. I have enjoyed raising my rabbits this year and look forward to doing a new animal next year. The highest bidder will help me save up for my next years project. I would love to do a bigger animal next year.
