Description

Hi! My name is Rhaleigh Cox and I am a sophomore at Silsbee High School. This is my third year showing a Market Goat at YMBL as a member of Silsbee FFA.

This year I named my goat Banner. He is by far the heaviest weight goat I've shown. He weighed in at 122 pounds and placed 3rd in class. He has been an extremely healthy goat and was able to put on bloom very fast. Once he put on adequate weight, I was able to start exercising him regularly and adjusting feed and supplements to grow his muscles.

I believe I have matured and improved as a showman this year. The biggest lessons I've learned with Banner is the importance of regular exercise and how it improves the overall quality and weight of the animal.

Thank you for supporting FFA kids and the hard work we put in all year raising and caring for these show animals.
