Description

My name is Bella Prough. I'm 16 years old and live in Rifle, Colorado. This is my fourth year participating in the Garfield County 4-H program. I am raising swine and I am the Garfield County Jr. Queen. This will be my fourth year competing in barrels at the rodeos in the valley and in 4-H. I have always had a dream to own horses and raise animals, but I never thought it was possible. Now, I am living that dream, raising animals, and riding horses thanks to my parents.

What I like about 4-H is that it teaches you the correct way to care for animals. In addition, it teaches you some basic principles of running a business. I have learned that there is a lot more to raising an animal than just feeding it and picking up after it.

Without 4-H, I wouldn't be the young lady I am today. It has helped me develop leadership skills that will benefit me in my future. The biggest highlight of my year is the Garfield County Fair and Rodeo.

The money I get this year from my swine will be put towards my college tuition, where I plan to study to become a large animal veterinarian. One of my passions is to help animals that some vets say can't be helped. I want to be a vet who tries to do everything they can no matter the situation.

I will be showing in market swine, swine showmanship and swine premier exhibitor.

I would appreciate your support and presence at the Garfield County Fair this year on July 24 at 8:00 A.M. for the swine show. Please consider joining us for the Buyers BBQ and the livestock auction on Saturday, July 27..

Hope to see you there. I would love to show you my swine and would be grateful for all your support!!
