Congressman Bill Sarpalus has donated a United States Flag, a Texas Flag, a private tour of the United States Capitol (which will be included in the Member of Congress Dining Room), and a copy of his autobiography "The Grand Duke from Boys Ranch."

Each flag will be flown over their respective Capitols. The flags can be flown over the capitol for a special occasion at the direction of the buyer. For instance, the flag can be flown over the capitol for a birthday, anniversary, or recognition, in honor of or in memory of. Each flag will come with a certificate of authenticity.

In addition to the flags, Capitol tour, and lunch, the buyer will receive an autographed copy of Bill Sarpalus' autobiography "The Grand Duke from Boys Ranch" which chronicles his rise through the FFA and helping the country of Lithuania establish their independence from communist Russia.

- Tour of the United States Capitol
- U.S. Flag
