Description

Rodeo is home-raised from our first breeding ewe, Violet, and our latest ram (born on our farm last year), Levi, who was the Supreme Breeding Ram last year at the Colorado State Fair and Reserve Champion Breeding Ram at the El Paso County Fair this year. I am happy to have my past hard work coming together. My lambs grew fast on their own, making my job more fun than work this year! Each year I put together another piece to the puzzle, which helps my project feel more like an experience than work. My parents and club leaders always told me that I will take what I learn here into my life to help me, and I am starting to see what they mean.

Rodeo is a nice boy and likes to be petted. I actually named him because he was happy go lucky as a little lamb, bouncing and kicking. He has his own personality that I absolutely adore. He likes kisses! He makes all my moments with him fun.

I really enjoy my 4-H project, and am glad to be able share it with you. I hope to see you at the auction and would love to talk more at the fair. Thank you for your time.
