Description

My name is Lara Quintero Gamez I am a freshman at the James Madison agricultural program. This year my SAE was market poultry , i have 25 ckick more girls than boys but that's ok the boys are sassy. I have learned about responsibility from this project from cleaning to feeding even if the process was challenging and definitely not close to perfect i can confidently say that i did my absolute best and i don't regret taking on the chance to look after them for the time being and getting to make a great product out of them. When i joined ag i would have never known that i would win grand showmanship champion and getting 7th place for spanish creed at the state level. im super proud of myself.
