Description

Howdy! My name is Kayden Odom from Nome, Texas. This year I have raised an F-1 heifer, a market hog, and a market steer along with my registered brahman cattle. I am a 4th generation rancher and work hard everyday to keep agriculture alive and well.

The F-1 heifer I am showing this year is a special one, as I have raised her from birth. Her momma was my first show heifer and this is her first calf. It has been fun learning more about ranching with a calf I can call my own.

At the end of this project, it is my goal to raise as much money as possible to help support my future projects, as well as having money to save to further my education and move me into a career. I would like to be a welder after I graduate from college.
